Hi! I'm T.

Throughout my 20-year professional graphic design career, I've had the opportunity to work on many design- and marketing-related projects, from traditional 4-color print media to web and social media graphics, packaging design, and more.

Let's work together and get the design To-Dos off your plate so you can focus on the daily operations that matter most to your business.

I invite you to set up a \(virtual\) coffee chat and we can discuss if a Design Breakfast is right for your business.
